SUMMARY OF THE CASE

The South Carolina State Board of Education (State Board) considered this matter on April 13, 2004. On February 27, 2004, the State Department of Education (Department) sent Ms. Caril M. Baker a notice of her right to a due process hearing regarding the possible suspension of her South Carolina educator certificate (certificate) by certified mail, return receipt requested delivery restricted to addressee. Ms. Baker, in lieu of a hearing, submitted a letter to the State Board of Education (State Board) since she now resides in Texas. After considering the evidence presented by the Department, the State Board voted to suspend Ms. Baker's certificate from January 26, 2004 through June 25, 2004.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Ms. Baker holds a valid certificate, with over twenty-eight years of teaching experience. She was under contract with Hampton County School District One (District) for the 2003-2004 school year, as a Library Media Specialist at Wade Hampton High School. During November 2003, Ms. Baker informed District Superintendent Terry Pruitt that she would have to leave the District before the end of the school year to assist with the care of her grandchild living in Texas. Ms Baker informed Dr. Pruitt that her son is in the Army and her daughter-in-law is in the Army Reserves and both of them were likely to be deployed to duty in Iraq or Kuwait sometime in March or April 2004. In August 2003, Ms. Baker agreed through the Army Family Care Program to be the guardian of her grandson while his parents were deployed. The child was born in November 2003. On December 4, 2003, Ms. Baker wrote Dr. Pruitt requesting that the District release her from her contract, effective January 15, 2004, apparently in order to become acquainted with the child before his parents were deployed.

On January 26, 2004, the District Board of Trustees voted to file a complaint with the State Board seeking the suspension of Ms. Baker's certificate for breach of contract. On March 16, 2004, Dr. Pruitt wrote the Department repeating the Board's previous request because he was still unable to secure a suitable replacement for her position.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The State Board may suspend the certificate of any person for breach of contract. S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-530 (1990). Unprofessional conduct includes breach of contract. S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-160 (1990); 24 S.C. Code Regs. 43-58 (1992). The State Board finds that there is conclusive evidence supporting its decision to suspend Ms. Baker's certificate # 190898 from January 26, 2004 through June 25, 2004 on the ground of unprofessional conduct due to breach of contract. At the end of the suspension period if she wants her certificate reinstated, Ms. Baker may make a written request for reinstatement to the Office of Teacher Certification of the Department.
